

Lois Rowena Jones

The death of Lois Rowena Jones of Wauklehegan Manor, McAdam, NB occurred on 15th of August 2004 in her 89th year.

Born in Fredericton in 1916, she was the eldest child of the late Ludlow Chester Malloy and Britannia (Noble) Malloy. Her paternal grandfather, Peter James Malloy was of UEL ancestry, her maternal grandfather, William Bedford Nobel, was a lumber baron in Sunbury County.

As a child, she lived in Milltown (Charlotte County) and attended local schools. In 1937, she married Harold Theodore Jones and moved to McAdam Junction, where they made their home. She was predeceased by her husband in 1982.

Throughout her life, she was a member of St. Paul's United Church (McAdam), where she sang in the choir, served in the UCW, worked with the Mission Band and supported fund-raising activities. She was a 55 year member and Past Matron of York Chapter #13, Order of the Easter Star (McAdam). For a number of years, she was employed at the CPR Dining Room and later with two McAdam Stores.

She is survived by her daughter Victoria (Vicky) and by her son Theodore (Ted) and his wife Anita; four grandchildren (Stephanie, Brenda, Debra and Adam); five great grandchildren; three nephews and several cousins. Besides her parents and her husband, she was predeceased by her sister, Jean Cleghorn and her brother, Donald Malloy, both of St. Stephen.

The remains are resting at St. Paul's United Church in McAdam, with visitation on Tuesday from two until four and from seven until nine. The funeral service will take place from the church on Wednesday at 2 PM, the Rev. Ellen Beairsto officiating. Interment will be in the Rockland Cemetery, McAdam.

In lieu of flowers, remembrances can be made to the charity of the donor's choice. Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to S.O. Mehan & Son Funeral Home, St. Stephen, NB
